

German-Evening Courses in Berlin

Current Course Schedule

Attention employees, students and interns!

Did you already know that the German-Evening Courses take place twice a week, in the evening, all year long?

When reading this information closely,

you will notice that the evening course times of our German classes also enable employees, students and interns to participate in a German Course.

And for sure you've probably noticed that the German-Evening Course works with the communicative language teaching method and focuses on the practical usage of the German language, as it also does on explaining and practicing the German grammar.

So, you're expecting even more?

Then let me tell you that the motivated and highly qualified German teachers are there to help you refine your German pronunciation, to train and increase your vocabulary and to improve your German writing skills.
